

Dears at DANDRITE

Young DANDRITE would like to invite you to our first METHOD CAFÉ of 2022!
The method we are focusing on is JoVE - Journal of Visualized Experiments!

Are you mastering a research technique that you've been asked to teach others? Then you know that it can be difficult to explain by text articles or written protocols only as intricate details often get lost. Then why not make a video publication?

Join us either in person or online for a workshop on JoVE, the peer-reviewed video journal for your hard-to-explain research techniques, presented by DANDRITE-affiliated member Mette Richner. Mette will explain the process of publishing in JoVE and share previous experiences with this publication format.

We look forward to seeing you all in person again!
