

A joint scientific seminar from the Aarhus University and Charles River

Animal Welfare from a Practical Perspective – Sharing is Caring!

9:00 – 9:15 Welcome and Setting the Scene: Why Focus on Animal Model Selection

Lars Friis Mikkelsen, Charles River

9:15 – 10:00 How to Increase Reproducibility and Translatability in your Animal Studies

Tine Rudolph, Charles River

10:00 – 10:15 Networking and Coffee Break

10:15 – 11:00 The Importance of Good Surgical Practice in Rodent Surgery – Tips & Tricks

Thomas Svava Nielsen, TS Nielsen Scientific Consult

11:00 – 11:30 Leveraging Animal Welfare and the 3Rs to Optimize Scientific Research

Tine Rudolph, Charles River

11:30 – 11:45 Summary, Panel Discussion, and Networking – What Did You and We Learn Today?

Please register no later than 3 March, 2026 for the free-to-attend scientific seminar.

Register

Tuesday, 10 March, 2026

Venue:

Aarhus University, Wilhelm Meyers Allé 3, Lille Anatomisk Auditorium, Room 1231-424, 8000 Aarhus C, Denmark

Contact Jakob le Fèvre Harslund
Jakob@biomed.au.dk, Birgitte Kousholt

Birgitte.kousholt@clin.au.dk, Tine Rudolph Tine.Rudolph@crl.com or

Lars Friis Mikkelsen
LarsFriis.Mikkelsen@crl.com for any further information.