INVITATION

Annual PhD course in the Graduate Programme for Oncology and Haematology, March 26-27, 2014.

The 2014 annual PhD course in the Graduate Programme for Oncology and Haematology will like previous years be organized in connection with the annual meeting in 'Dansk Selskab for Klinisk Onkologi' (DSKO) at Hotel Nyborg Strand, Østerøvej 2, 5800 Nyborg.

The course is held March 26-27, 2014.

Tentative program is attached.

Price: DKK 2.800,-, includes course fee, all meals and accommodation. Transportation to and from Hotel Nyborg Strand is not included.

Payment will be organized between participating institutions.

Please register by sending an e-mail to louise@oncology.dk including name, institution, project title, and name of supervisor. Please remember to attach an abstract (max. ½ page) of your project in English. Abstracts will be selected for oral presentations (5-10 min.), further information regarding presentations will follow.

The registration deadline is February 20, 2014.

If you wish to participate in the following annual meeting in 'Dansk Selskab for Klinisk Onkologi' it is possible to get a discounted DSKO fee of DKK 2.000,- (instead of DKK 3.100,-). This requires participation in the annual PhD course and submission of an abstract to the DSKO meeting. Please see <http://www.dsko.org/events/dskos-arsmde-2014/>.
